

26th Annual Seminar When Wallflowers Dance

Saturday, April 16th, 2011 • 9:00 a.m. - 2:30 p.m.
New Location - The Hotel at Kirkwood, Cedar Rapids

Angela Thomas

Angela Thomas believes that ordinary women become extraordinary in the arms of God. She knows. She is an ordinary woman. As a best-selling author, sought-after speaker and gifted story-teller, Angela transparently shares real-life experiences that help women of all ages and from all walks of life develop a deeper passion for knowing God. While Angela was serving as a part-time youth director she discovered her true calling as a speaker and teacher. After living 14 years as wife and mother of four, Angela's marriage ended. Through the wounds of divorce and the uncharted territory of life as a single mom, Angela learned how to rely on God for strength, hope and comfort.

Bebo Norman

"My life is a dream come true," says Norman. "I'm given the opportunity to create records that become sort of like a topographical map of all my past experiences. And today I'm happily married with two boys that I love. Still, I find myself looking up and asking, 'Who am I outside of music and beyond being a husband and a father? How do I hide myself in who Christ is rather than relying on my own identity in the real world?' Every song on Ocean (his seventh studio project) speaks to that idea."

Pre-seminar cash continental breakfast bar available.

Banquet doors open at 8:15 a.m.
